General and Revenue Depttt

Bangalore

Sir,

As my retirement has been ordered by Government I respectfully beg to solicit that my representation dated 25th May 1894, which was ordered to be kept-bye till the time of my retirement, may be taken into consideration.

Since the date of the above representation, several officials have been granted the concession of three years of British service. For my present purpose I beg to quote the case of P. S. Ranganadar Forest-Surveyor and of M. C. Krishna Rao late Amildar of Nelamangala. Who died before final orders were passed in his case.

Mine has been a very unfor-tunate case. I never volunteerd to go to the Residency. Had the Residency not been formed and if the then General Secretary to the Chief Commissioner had not been appointed assistant to the Resident I would not have left the General Records where I was an Indexer. At that time service with the Residency was also interchangeable.

To my misfortune every thing has changed to my disadvantage.
After a service of over 5 years in the late Mysore Commission I was taken to the Residency and after a service of 10 years there I was advised to resign my post in view to re enter the Dewan's office which I had left as Chief Commissioner's office. I then was under the idea that resigning an appointment to take up another appointment was no resignation.
Since my coming back I have put in a service of 20 years. This by itself will not entitle me to half pay pension.
I therefore respectfully ~~said~~ beg that the Government may be pleased to allow me to count at least 5 years to my eligible service so that I may Enjoy a moiety of my present pay as pension during the rest of my life - This will be of some consolation.

and Compensation to save for all my several disappointments, supersessions and hardships

Humbly trusting that my pitiable case will receive generous consideration at the hands of Government.

I beg to remain

Sir,

Your most obedient servt

Sivabáráo
Asst Supdt &c
Revenue Branch

P.S.

I have put up the cases of
M. C. Krishna Rao late Gumdar
P. S. Ramiengar, Forest Surveyor
D. Venkoba Rao, Subovertseer
Govindarajalu Naidu Sanctary Supdt.

I had no break in my service as in the above cases. I have put in a continuous service of over 30 years. The present Dewan when he was Chief Secretary re-commended my case for the favorable consideration of the then Dewan, who while deciding against me, subsequently allowed three years service to Surveyor Ramiengar.

which he will be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{20}{60}$ ths of his average emoluments lessened by $\frac{2}{40}$ ths thereof on account of average.

If however 3 years of his ex-Service is given the case is treated as re-employment in the same Service then his 3 years will have to be counted as 3 years + previous Qualifying Service 3 years therefore he will not lose anything for average and he will be given 3 years so his pension will be $\frac{23}{60}$ ths of the avge emoluments.

Is it possible to condone the deficiency of 2 years & give him full pension.

Subbarow's case is very similar to that of P.S. Ramiengar & C Krishna Row & the concession which has been granted to Ramiengar in Go which would have been granted to Krishna Row if he had lived, viz Counting 3 years of British service as qualifying for pension, may be granted to Subbarow. As noted by the Asst Secy the concession will incidentally relieve him from the penalties of art 341 rule also. The concession would be well merited as Subbarow has worked very satisfactorily in the different capacities he has served in -

Was 3 years British service counted in the precedent case under any rules or arbitrarily? Please also see previous.

M

Please see Art 436 under which this Case is sought to be supported. That allows 3 years of British Service to count as a max. This Case is further complicated, having begun Service about a year after the Mutiny & the withdrawal of the Regulations which he would have had if he had entered as a Soldier or Officer. But the Rule is fixed and Art 436 abolishes the right of this Article is a question of the amount of qualifying Service which 30 years has the increased for calculation for Art 436, strictly speaking does not apply to this case.

No. I think "qualifying service" in para 2 of Note under art 341 M.S.R can in this case include only the previous service in Mysore & not Residency service. In this view a reduction of $\frac{1}{40}^{th}$ of pension amount becomes necessary for decrease if the qualifying service should be under the same Govt then he cannot count anything except perhaps the 3 years which is to be added on as a grace but inasmuch as the same service has qualifying & would have come in for a proportionate share from the Mysore Revenue if he had continued in the Dr Service the Court in the Dr Service has decided as qualifying for the purpose of art 341, in other words the Recommendation is not to make any deduction for decrease.

In the precedent case the Concession was given as a S/L Case it was decided stated in the order "although art 141 of the M.S.R. does not strictly apply to the case yet Govt have it under the circumstances as a S/L Case. The circumstances are the same and a like Concession seems due

Seen note. Thanks [illegible] 8/6

Under the strict letter of the Rules a pension for 20 yrs service subject to deduction of 1/40 ths for overage will be admissible. The service can be made upto 21 years under at 293 M.S.R. at the discretion of Govt.

If more than the above amount is to be given it will have to be under 501 M.S.R. There are no sufficient grounds to bring this article into requisition. [illegible] 31/5/11

(Judl Secy) [illegible] 5/6/11

I would strongly recommend that this case may be dealt with in the same manner as that of P.S. Ramiengi and the deduction under art 341 M.S.R. also waived as a special case.

NOTES.

Submitted.

The deduction to be made on account of overage under arts 34 & 1 M.S.R. will be $\frac{1}{40}$ not 1/40 as no portion of the Service from May 1875. to 31. 3. 81. rendered by Mr. Subba Rao prior to his ~~first~~ Appointment permanently in British Service on 26. 5. 81, qualifies for purposes of the note under art 34 (1). From the Secretariat Memo ✗ of 16. 5. 93. vide Serial no 2 1 to 4 of file 2 of 1892-93, it will be seen that ~~the applicant~~ the appointments held by Mr. Subba Rao ~~were~~ during the period (from May 75 to March 81) were mostly temporary, Service in which does not qualify: and even if he had continued in the Imperial Service this period would not have counted, and it is only qualifying Service that can be taken into account under the note to that article.

H A.

The only permanent appointment held held by him was that of Clerk in the Dy Surgeon Gl's Office, Dec. 79 on Rs 20/- from 15-5-79 to 31-3-80. which was not Mysore Service.

He ~~was~~ seems to have been without employment from 1-4-80 till he was employed temporarily under the Mysore Durbar on Rs 15/- from 1-5-80 which appointment also ceased from 1-4-81.

It will thus be seen that he has not rendered any qualifying Service under the Mysore Govt during this period to entitle him to the Concession admissible under the rule to Art 341.

The Main points alone

be better, I shall ~~not object~~ have no objection to ~~allow~~ keeping him on for a year more if the Dewan considers that as a better man making concessions in the matter of the pension. Kindly keep Early orders on the file.

I thought of submitting the matter in person to the Dewan but as you are aware there was no suitable opportunity to discuss the pressing other work.
